Resolution on Facilitated Conversation Between Selected Members of the Faculty Senate and the Senior Administration

Passed May 2, 2003

Be it resolved:

That in the interest of moving the University community toward an atmosphere of mutual respect and trust conducive to the success and well-being of the University,

That the Faculty Senate and President Shelby Thames seek a mutually acceptable facilitator to foster meaningful and constructive dialogue, conflict resolution, healing, and the rebuilding of trust between faculty and the senior administration at the University.
