This 2013-14 is brought to you for free and open access by the CSRW Awards at The Aquila Digital Community. It has been accepted for inclusion in Kathanne W. Greene Paper Award by an authorized administrator of The Aquila Digital Community. For more information, please contact Joshua.Cromwell@usm.edu.
Committee on Services and Resources for Women sponsors:

The Kathanne W. Greene Award
Annual Essay and Research Article Competition

Prize: $200

Eligibility: Open to all USM undergraduate and graduate students. Essays must focus on gender issues and must have been produced between February 2013 and February 2014. A prize will be awarded to one undergraduate ($200) and one graduate student ($200).

Specifications:
- Undergraduate papers 8-15 pages in length; graduate submissions 15-20 pages.
- Submissions should include two documents: 1) a separate title page containing the author’s name, graduate or undergraduate status, home department, contact information, and how author learned about the CSRW prize, and 2) the essay for consideration. Essays undergo a blind review, and thus, no identifiers should appear in the body of the paper. If the author’s name or other identifiers appear in the body of the essay, the essay will be disqualified.
- All papers must be sole-authored by a student.

Submission Details: Papers may be submitted by student authors or by faculty members who wish to nominate a student paper for consideration. Please email submissions as attached files to the Committee Chair: Sheila Davis at Sheila.davis@usm.edu.

Deadline: 5pm, Friday, March 7, 2014
