2.0 Remarks from Provost Wiesenburg

Announcements: 82 new faculty have been hired for the upcoming year (64 tenure track), travel for governance will begin to be covered by the Provost office; VPAA decision should be made soon (probably Monday); university budget went in today to IHL (not much room for new initiatives), tuition will be increased and enrollment is expected to be up by 2%; textbook review and ordering process lead to a revision and new procedures will be in place this fall. In addition, they will be reviewing the policy regarding textbook use “same text, same course” across sections and campuses; emeritus policy approved by Senate has been tabled by the Faculty Handbook committee.

Questions:

Kate Greene asked whether Dr. Wiesenburg had spoken to University Mississippi about their selection policy. He responded that he had not because he wanted to the policy to be from our faculty. In response to Senator Davis’s question about placing late textbook orders, Dr. Wiesenburg said that it would be okay.

- Dr. Wiesenburg clarified the role the Provost as the "Chief Administrative Officer" after the President which gives more strength and standing in the university executive committee.
- Clarification of salaries per the CUPA averages for new faculty and for dealing with salary compression, Dr. Wiesenburg stated that IHL may go back to the legislature and request additional funding to cover the increased PERS payments the universities must make. The data that has been gathered will assist in determining the greatest needs among faculty and Cabinet is committed to resolving this issue.
- Responding to a question from Senator Smith for information about the presidential search timeline of six months, Dr. Wiesenburg referenced a Hattiesburg American article but stated that he had not had any conversations with the IHL Board. He went on to say that it would be a challenge.
June 25 there will be a going away reception for Dr. Saunders in the Trent Lott Center from 3 to 5PM. There will be opportunities to make a donation for a gift.

6.2 Faculty Handbook: Professor Emeritus Policy

Senator Tingstrom reported the Handbook committee met May 8th to discuss the Senate’s discussion regarding the policy. Handbook committee eventually tabled the policy after much discussion until the next meeting in the fall. Since that time, Myron Henry contacted Senator Tingstrom and stated that since the committee is in favor of the policy (9 to 1 on the first vote), he would like it put into the Handbook by the Fall 2012. If the policy is not finalized and approved before this summer, the policy could not be implemented until Fall 2013.

Discussion:

• David Beckett, Chair of the Faculty Handbook committee, voiced similar concerns and added an issue about the current policy that states “excels in teaching, research, and service” closing out opportunity for instructors of long service in teaching only. Other issues include that there is no appeal along with other ambiguities in the process. He plans ask the committee to reconvene early this summer for a final decision and enable the policy to be in place by this fall.

• Kate Greene asked if the AAUP Chair would be able to attend. David Beckett said AAUP and Senate are always welcome.

• Senator Miller asked where he can find the discussion in the minutes. Senator Lux stated she would send out the proposed changes so that the new members would have it.

• Senator Flynn stated that she would support a more general emeritus policy that is not automatic.

6.3 Mileage for governance travel – Provost addressed and supported a travel stipend beginning at 15K for travel required between campuses for governance meetings.
